

SCHOLARSHIP SCHEMES for the Wards of Farmers

Fauji Fertilizer Company Ltd manufacturer of Sona Urea, Pakistan's Premier quality nitrogenous fertilizer, announces Scholarship Schemes to support talented youth by offering them financial support with an objective to develop highly skilled professionals to cater for the needs of the country. This financial assistance will be provided in the form of scholarships to the needy and talented wards of the farmers community for higher education and postmatric studies.

Higher Education

Disciplines

- Chemical Engineering
- Mechanical Engineering
- Electrical Engineering
- Electronics Engineering
- MSc Agronomy/Soil Sciences
- MCS/BCS (preferably MCS)
- MBA (Finance, Marketing)
- Chartered Accountant (Foundation)

Scholarship

- Rs. 1,500 per month

Post Matric

- Scholarship Rs. 1,000 per month

Eligibility

All male and female students studying in:

- 1st/2nd Semester of Bachelors Class (Higher Education)
- First Year of Intermediate for Post Matric
- Studying in government approved colleges, universities and financial institutions, with first class academic career
- Whose father's/guardian's land holding does not exceed 50 acres

How to Apply? Application forms are available from our District Sales Offices throughout the country as well as at the following web address: www.ffc.com.pk

Completed forms may be submitted to the concerned District Sales Officers of the respective areas, alongwith the attached requisite documents.

Last date to submit forms 31st March 2010